IF LOVE BE ONE.

The child is innocent, the wife is faithful,
The love is almost spiritual;
But what the greatest way and day
To those whose hearts are weary
And what is more true still the case,
Yet can no further go.
And what is more true still the case,
You have your mortal friends,
Whom you like to see with you every good
As if they wanted more.
The love is almost spiritual
If love be one.

WILSON ENJOYS EVERY FEATURE CHRISTMAS DAY

Genuinely simple, yet artistic, the present
greetings card is suitable for a Merry Christmas, and finds a place in the happiest memories.

A French train was racing west to New York, as the train moved to the top of a long, steep mountain.
The train had just passed the summit
when it came to a dead stop.
The engine stopped, the train would have halted, but it was the accident due to the American driver and conductor.
Driver lost control of the train, and had to stop it in time to save the traveling public and ensure the safety of all passengers.

All of the injured are in a hospital now.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Charl H. Fletcher
and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.
Allow no one to deceive you in this.
All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its use is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulence, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.

Bluntzer News and Views

(By W. G. Sutherland.)

Bluntzer, Texas, Dec. 25.—Grass is abundant, water plentiful, ranchmen and farmers happy, and everybody anticipating a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year. I almost forgot to mention that we still have roads in places. Of course, some travellers grumble and growl and curse and swear, but some people are so constituted that they would kick if the gaiters were only three feet deep.

Three young men—James Carr, Clyde Wright and Alfred Sutherland—now in the United States army, will be missed from their accustomed places this Christmas.

Mrs. M. P. Wright was injured in an automobile accident last Monday.

Mrs. M. P. Wright and Mrs. John U. Bluntzer have rendered valuable service to the country and devoted much time and labor to their unswerving and successful efforts in obtaining new members for the Red Cross, and subscribers to the Liberty Loan, and the United War Fund.

For several years cattle, horses and mules have mysteriously disappeared from this neighborhood. An underground railroad operated by several active rustlers has been recently discovered. One of the conductors got mad and squealed. He says all the members were to receive a just and equal share of the profits.

He is a hog thief; that after taking most of the risk in rustling a car load of calves this hogfish partner only gave him one-fifth of the profits. He now declares he will stand no more in partnership with such a dishonest rascal. Look out, rustlers! Five of you are known, and your race is nearly run. Better change your occupation or hunt a healthier climate. One unscrupulous remarked yesterday: "I have suspected that bunch for some time, and after the next mysterious disappearance of a cow, calf, horse, mule, hog or dog from my pasture, there will not be a ne'er-do-well and scoundrel among us." The stockmen are unmercifully persecuted back on his own land. He must be compelled to make restitution and give security for his future good behavior. Germany will eventually be restored to the sisterhood of nations, but she will first be purified by suffering.

PRINTING PRESS MONEY IN HANDS OF BOLSHEVIKI

pleased. They are succeeded to us, for the most part, Russian Jews, nearly all of them bearing monograms used by Count Kessler, who was exiled from here a week ago as representative of the German Berlin government.

They are here to buy up, Trotsky says as member of an alleged Red Cross delegation, claiming that their mission was the use of Russian prisoners. With the Russians comes flowing so freely, the Baltic powers are attempting to find the source of the money's wealth.

"Only American influence can destroy Bolshevism," declared Count Alexander Iachinov today, in talking with the correspondent. "It will not be destroyed by mere hunger; it is a mistake to assume that, because that is what it started with. At the present time there is no food in the cities and towns, no commerce, no salt, and no meat."
